

Over 1,000 students participated in class tests over the course of three semesters. Students provided their impression of Connect Master for Investigating Technology and the instructional design approach used.

Overall impression of Investigating Technology

Do you like using an all-digital textbook?

Do you like the use of less text/bullets when converting the concepts?

89% Agree different question types made learning concepts easier

86% Agree the all-digital learning method was more engaging/fun than a traditional textbook

56% Agree they spent more time studying/learning compared to using a traditional textbook

Participating institutions: College of Central Florida, Central Texas College, Norco Community College, Riverside Community College, Moreno Valley Community College, Middlesex County College, Delaware Technical Community College, North Idaho College, and College of Southern Nevada.